

Workshop

»Contested Extractivism, Society and the State«

23 October 2015, Freie Universität Berlin

Boltzmannstr. 1, 14195 Berlin (room 003)

23 October 2015
10:00	Welcome and introduction	Bettina Engels, Kristina Dietz
10:15	The production of extractive spaces. Global change, securitization and local states of exception	Facundo Martín
11:00	(In)justice is in the Territory: The nexus between land access, environmental justice and extractivism in Latin America	Victoria Burgos-Marin
11:45	Coffee and tea
12:00	The locomotive is gaining pace: Socio-political and institutional repercussions of mining in Colombia	Kristina Dietz
12:45	Mining, social activism and spatial transparency in Indonesia	Oliver Pye, Irendra Radjawali
13:30	Lunch
14.30	Market-driven land redistribution and resettlement in Malawi. The returnees of the Community Based Rural Land Development Project	Davide Chinigò
15:15	Contestation and struggles in small-scale gold mining: foreign capital, local conflict and state collusion in Ghana	Gordon Crawford
16:00	Coffee and tea
16:15	Not all that glitters is gold: gold mining and socio-political conflicts in Burkina Faso	Bettina Engels
17:00	Conclusion	Jonas Wolff
17:45	End of the workshop	